Letter from the CEO

Dear Colleagues,

Welcome to 2008! As we begin a new year serving the international community, on behalf of UnitedHealth International's executives and myself, I want to take this opportunity to thank you for all your efforts and remarkable outcomes in 2007, and share with you some thoughts on 2008.

In retrospect, 2007 was a year full of many changes, challenges and accomplishments, a year to examine our organization and see where we are and where we want to be positioned a year from now.

While we celebrate our successes for 2007 we need to strive for continued successes in 2008 by achieving sustainable profitable growth, maintaining operational excellence and focus on serving our customers. As global citizens, we will work to make health care better for future generations.

As you know UnitedHealth International has offices across the world. One of our goals for 2008 is to provide a channel that keeps everyone informed of our current activities, showcase our accomplishments and share interesting topics no matter where you are. It is with great pleasure to introduce our first UnitedHealth International newsletter. Our newsletter will be distributed electronically on a quarterly basis. It includes an in-depth Business Overview, a Senior Leaders' corner, a Country Overview – an educational piece, Business Briefs, Healthcare global news, Sales results – highlighting success stories and lastly but not the least, an employee/team recognition corner.

I am excited to know that going forward we will have a common ground where we can connect as the sole entity we are; and encourage you to share your thoughts and ideas for future Newsletter issues.

Kind Regards,
Ori Karev
CEO, UnitedHealth International
